Editor Name: ____________________________ Lab #: ______
Author Name: ____________________________

General
Is the paper free of spelling/grammar errors? ______/5
Is the paper presented in a proper and easy to understand format? ______/5
Does the paper avoid the use of jargon and keep the audience in mind? ______/5
General Comments: ________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________

Objectives
Does the objectives section state the problem or question clearly? ______/10
Does the objectives section motivate the necessity for the experiment? ______/5
Objectives Comments: ________________________________________________________________
_______________________________________________________________________________

Procedure
Do the procedures provide a clear and concise overview? ______/5
Does the procedure section give an adequate overview of the steps taken in the experiment to find the answer to the problem/question without just copying the steps from the Lab Manual? Does the section explain why? ______/10
Procedure Comments:______________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Data
Is the data correct and sufficient? _____/10
Are the figures and tables presented clearly and correctly? _____/5
Data Comments:__________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Results
Do the results come directly and clearly from the data? _____/10
Do the results tie the evidence to the conclusions clearly? _____/10
Are the assumptions or example calculations shown? _____/5
Results Comments:________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

Conclusions
Does the conclusions section summarize the final results and evidence that supports them? _____/10
Does the conclusions section address the validity of the experiment? _____/5
Conclusions Comments:____________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________

TOTAL _____/100
Overall Comments:________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________________